TOP 5 REASONS TO FALL IN LOVE WITH WOMEN

Women. We say it all the time “You can’t live with them and you can’t live without them.” If I’ve ever heard a statement to be so true, it would be that one. Not many things in life I’d consider to be the death of me, but I think being a lesbian has given me an all new perspective on saying that falling in love with women has a way of slowly making you weak and tremble at the knees. It isn’t that I pride myself on many things, I mean, I didn’t choose to love women the way I do, but hell . . . I think I find more reasons every day to remind myself how great it is to be gay and have the privilege of falling in love with a beautiful, sexy lady.

Whenever I’m asked the question of “why don’t you like men?” there’s never really a stable answer for me to give. Truthfully, there isn’t anything about men that I don’t like, there are just a ton of things about women that I do. For instance, they’re sensual. They are soft, and the way their bodies feel are just so much more pleasing against my naked body than I’d ever imagine a man’s can be. From the curves of their hips, to the arch in their back - the way their breasts perk up when they feel turned on - everything about a woman’s body is worth falling in love with. On top of what is physical, women have this emotional and deep sentimental way of handling our needs, of talking to us to let us know where they are at. A mental stimulation with somebody will get me much more in the mood and ready to play then instantly jumping to having your hands on me. It’s the natural caretaker in us, of course, but also - Have you ever heard the sweet sound of a woman’s voice when she’s telling you to fuck her harder, or deeper? Whispering words in your ear that she’s so wet and needs you to make her feel better. I consider that a part of mental stimulation and a much faster way of making me feel intimate with you.

Speaking of being intimate with a woman - It's hot. I've slept with men before, enough to let me know that having sex with women makes me feel more valued and loved. I mean, of course we have our moments of "I want to rip your clothes off right here, right now" and "bend me over and fuck me like I'm nothing" but overall, it never feels like someone is wanting to only fuck me without making love to me.

We've established that the sexual and intimate behavior from women are just a couple reasons why falling in love with them is so easy, but I think acknowledging a little bit about the diversity in the career field is important; It's sexy to find a woman who is a boss in what she does and walks through the place like she owns it. They say confidence is key, and any woman who cannot just handle their own place, but run it - is damn near the most attractive in my eyes. I love loving women. Especially during a time where it's acceptable to be gay, and let that be known. Falling in love with a woman for who she is now is one of the best feelings I've ever known, but I think falling in love with a woman whom I know will be someone to raise kids with and share that mother role with is just another exception to what makes them so great.

There are so many ways to look at women - from them being beautiful, to hot, to sexy; from being vulnerable in their emotions to kicking ass as an independent, take-charge leading lady; from their different levels of intimacy in romance and sexual energy. Five things to tell you about why it's so great to fall in love with a woman really doesn't do them justice, but I think allowing yourself to just fall in love with a woman will allow you to see it completely for yourself.
